ETHICAL PRACTICES BOARD ISSUES SUMMARY OF
1990 CAMPAIGN FINANCE REPORTS FOR STATE
CANDIDATES, POLITICAL COMMITTEES, AND POLITICAL FUNDS

Candidates for state executive and legislative offices spent $14,082,796 to seek election in 1990, from total available resources of $18,793,301, according to a summary of campaign finance reports compiled by the Ethical Practices Board.

A record $12.9 million in contributions from individuals, political committees, political funds, and political parties was received by 457 candidates for state executive and legislative offices in the 1990 elections.

The summary is based upon reports for 1990 filed with the Board by principal campaign committees of candidates for governor-lieutenant governor, attorney general, state treasurer, state auditor, secretary of state, state senator, state representative, and judicial office. Also included in the summary are reports filed by candidates for Special Elections in Districts 32B and 50B in 1991.

Additionally, the report summarizes data supplied by 313 political party committees and 483 political committees and political funds who contribute to state candidates.

Comparison of total data from 1990 election year by kind of principal campaign committee, political committee, or political fund with similar data from 1988 and 1986 election years is included in the report.

1990 General Election - Candidates

The campaign spending limit applicable in 1990, based on the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index 1986-1990, was $1,626,691 for governor-lieutenant governor; $271,116 for attorney general; $135,559 for secretary of state, state auditor, state treasurer (each); $40,669 for state senator; and $20,335 for state representative candidates. Information about public subsidy distributed in 1990 included in the report discloses that 439 (96%) of the 457 candidates filing for office voluntarily agreed to abide by spending limits and other conditions in order to receive money from the State Elections Campaign Fund. A total of $4,400,412 in public subsidy was distributed in 1990. In 1986, 358 (80%) of the candidates signed public subsidy agreements (total distributed: $2,390,821); in 1982, 417 (89%) candidates signed public subsidy agreements (total distributed: $1,576,856).

According to statistics compiled from candidate reports for the 1990 election, winners outspent losers in 66% of the Legislative races. Candidates in 27 Legislative districts (13% of 201 districts) ran without opposition in the 1990 general election.

Candidates for state executive offices received contributions in 1990 totaling $6,609,737 from individuals, political committees and funds, and political parties. Included in this amount are 3,125 separate donations of more than $200 each, totaling $5,121,902 (77% of total contributions received). In 1990, 429 candidates for the legislature received contributions totaling $6,305,668 from individuals, political committees and funds, and political parties. Included in this amount are 7,866 separate donations of more than $100 each, totaling $3,100,684 (49% of total contributions received).

Campaign expenditures in 1990 reported by candidates for state executive and legislative offices represent a 24% increase in campaign spending when compared with total expenditures of $11,359,186 for 1986, the second election in which all these offices were elected in the same year since the 1974 enactment of the campaign finance laws administered by the Board. The expenditures were made from funding of $12,319,751 in contributions from individuals, political committees, and political funds (71%); $4,400,412 from public subsidy (26%); and $565,733 in contributions from political parties (3%).

Total campaign expenditures of $4,035,822 in 1990 reported by 156 Senate candidates represent a 26% increase in campaign spending when compared with total expenditures of $3,198,263 for 1986. In 1990, Senate candidates spent $25,871 on the average, compared with $23,009 in 1986. The highest amount expended by a Senate candidate in 1990 was $172,512, compared with $93,271 in 1986. The Senate candidates received total contributions of $2,936,917 from individuals, political committees and funds, and political parties, including $1,558,818 from 3,608 contributions in amounts of more than $100 (53%) of contributions received. Candidates in five Senate districts (8% of 67) ran without opposition in the 1990 general election.

In 1990, 273 House candidates reported total campaign expenditures of $3,510,661 a 1% decrease in campaign spending when compared with total expenditures of $3,546,267 in 1988 and a 11% increase compared with total spending of $3,165,953 in 1986. In 1990, House candidates spent $12,860 on the average, compared with $12,103 in 1988, and $11,555 in 1986. The highest amount expended by a House candidate in 1990 was $36,991, compared with $42,106 in 1988 and $43,780 in 1986. The House candidates received total contributions of $3,191,356 from individuals, political committees and funds, and political parties, including $1,541,866 from 4,258 contributions in amounts of more than $100 (48% of contributions received). Candidates in 22 House districts (16% of 134) ran without opposition in the 1990 general election.

The Board's summary for 1990 includes reports filed by principal campaign committees of 13 candidates for election to five district court seats. Judicial candidates reported total campaign expenditures of $324,251 from contributions totaling $222,786.

1990 General Election - Political Committees and Political Funds

Reports filed by 313 political party committees and 483 political committees and political funds who contribute to state candidates disclosed receipt of contributions totalling $15,900,184 in 1990, from which they made total contributions of $5,850,026 to state candidates. Included in the $15,900,184: $1,833,960 contributed to Democratic-Farmer-Labor (DFL) committees which made $336,542 contributions to state candidates; $2,857,305 contributed to Independent-Republican (IR) committees which made $736,222 contributions to state candidates.

The 10 ballot question committees or funds raised a total of $79,910, expending a total of $23,882 in 1990, when a state constitutional amendment was submitted to voters at the November 6th general election.

Special Elections

A 1990 law to provide a public subsidy in special elections had its first application in two special elections held in 1991. Summary data from reports filed by candidates in the following special elections is included in the summary:

House District 50B (February 5, 1991) - four candidates spent a total of $46,422, from total resources of $38,943. One candidate received public subsidy of $5,756.

House District 32B (February 12, 1991) - eight candidates spent a total of $52,161, from total resources of $39,572. Two candidates received a public subsidy totaling $7,567.

Other State Candidate Committees

The Board report notes that 218 committees of candidates for state office were registered with the Board during 1990 whose candidates did not file for office in 1990. The committees report making a total of $819,198 in campaign expenditures in 1990 from resources totaling $1,383,083. In 1992, all legislative offices will be elected.

The summary includes, for each candidate committee, political committee or political fund, total contributions received; total transfers to other candidates, committees or funds; total expenditures; beginning and ending cash balances; a listing of the names of individuals, committees, or funds contributing in aggregate during 1990 more than $100 to legislative or district court candidates (more than $200 to statewide candidates); and amount of public subsidy received (applies only to candidates who signed and timely filed a Public Subsidy Agreement and an Affidavit of Contributions and qualified). A committee or fund's outstanding loans payable, unpaid bills, or disbursements other than campaign expenditures or transfers to candidates may not be reflected in the totals reported in the summary.

Campaign finance reports filed by candidate committees, political committees and funds, and summary publications are available for public inspection in the Board office, 625 North Robert Street, Room 102, St. Paul. Copies of state legislative candidate reports are available also in the county auditor's office in each county in the legislative district.
